From bumps and bruises to mass casualty incidents and trauma, VeriCor Response-Friendly™ Mobile Emergency Room (ER) Systems increase emergency room capacity and can be utilized on-scene where advanced levels of care are required. These systems are developed utilizing a modular design which allows you to select pre-packaged modules corresponding to the levels of care and response you desire.

Your modularized system can be operational within 1 hour of arriving on-site. Each ER module will support a 6-bed emergency room for 96 hours and can also be scaled to meet your needs.

Whether you choose a standard palletized system, or a highly mobile trailered system, you will receive a Response-Friendly™ Mobile ER that is complete, organized, labeled and equipped for immediate use. At the heart of your system will be VeriCor's exclusive SmartBook™, containing all of the critical data required to train, deploy, store and maintain your valuable system.
