

AirBoss Defense Moulded CBRN Gloves

Hand Protection Without Compromise

There is simply no better CBRN glove engineered specifically for military and first-response forces. Injection moulded using bromobutyl, the AirBoss glove fits better, dons faster and lasts for longer than dipped gloves. This is the ultimate in CBRN hand protection. The operational standout worldwide.

AMG Specifications

Operational Range	-45°C to 70°C (-49°F to 158°F)
Storage	-50°C to 60°C (-58°F to 140°F)
Shelf Life	15 years in original package if properly stored
Sizes	7
Color	Black
Weight (without filter)	135g (4.76 oz) per pair (size L, not including liners)
Packaging	Low-profile vacuum packed (size L, 365 cm ³)
Also available	Coolmax® Lycra removable liner for even greater comfort and sweat management

Special Features

- 24 hours of continuous protection against CW agents based on stringent military test methods; impermeable to all biological agents
- Excellent protection against a wide range of TICs (list available upon request)
- Superior protection against CBRN threats and a wide range of ITCs
- Lightweight and durable
- Can easily be decontaminated
- Ambidextrous
- Antistatic
- Optimal fit, comfort, dexterity and tactility
- Easy to don and doff
- Excellent integration with CBRN suits
- Accurate sizing
- Proven high performance
- Ruggedly tough & durable
- Textured finish for optimized grip